The Culinary Team of Nirwana Gardens

Over the years, the Culinary Teams in Nirwana Gardens were formed by talented and aspiring chefs from local and foreign culinary institutes or industries. The vision and mission of the team come from greatness and they know that being good is never enough, not in this highly competitive industry where travellers are well educated and spoiled for choices. With their passion for creating and delivering quality yet delicious fare, the culinary scene in Nirwana Gardens Hotel and Resorts is going through a renaissance with a new age of discovery in its offerings and focuses on two core movements across all Food & Beverage outlets in 2020.

1. Refining the Classics

To assist the Executive Chef to front this movement, Nirwana Gardens feature 3 veteran chefs to lead and create dining experiences that keep guests and groups coming back for more, year-after-year.

Executive Sous Chef J.Kunalan begin his culinary career in Singapore and Malaysia before relocating to Bintan with more than 30 years of industry experience. He is a maestro in the exotic Indian and Middle-Eastern cuisine where his creations are widely sought after by guests from all over the world.

Executive Sous Chef Ken Ow brings more than 20 years of diverse culinary experience. As a Singaporean, his creations are as iconic as the outlet he is helming; The Kelong Seafood Restaurant. He ensures to take our guest's taste bud on an adventure and continuously strives to keep the seafood restaurant a signature.

Executive Sous Chef Wali Abbas has years of experience in the culinary scene on this Island and arguably one of the best local Chef. He is an advocate for local and regional cuisine, who brings out the fascinating world of Indonesian cuisine with traditional spices and cooking technics.

2. Bold and Beautiful

To execute this movement, the team brings an unpretentious but elegant emphasis on both cooking and plating, with a pursuit for culinary perfection.

Executive Chef Vincent Kwek with 20 years of acclaimed culinary and leadership experience, oversees all the outlets and its operation in Nirwana Gardens. He is a Singaporean who believes that cooking is an art and has no boundaries - leading the Culinary Team is like leading an orchestra, where he is the conductor putting together the work of talented and hardworking Chefs to make beautiful culinary works of art.

His experience includes roles for well-known places in Singapore such as Gardens by the Bay and Marina Bay Sands under Master Chef Hwang Jin Piao and Executive Chef Christopher Christie who shaped him to what he is today. Making every effort to interpret his ideas through quality ingredients, cooking technics and plating, the team has successfully introduced French, Modern Asian, Spanish and European inspired cuisine into Dino Bistro, together with Senior Sous Chef David Nugraha. In banquet, the landscape of our buffet spreads for daily breakfast, corporate and private events are getting a new zest of life under the creative and graceful hands of Senior Sous Chef Romayani Solin. With the team in place, Nirwana Gardens is looking forward to showcasing the talent in 2020 and woo the modern travellers that are hungry for culinary diversity and professionalism.

Experience the charm of Bintan at this hotel, ideal for your business meeting. Our Corporate Group Package is designed to fit your budget and to help you create an unforgettable meeting experience.
